

Adams Express has placed its under obligation for paper in advance of the mail.

A tremendous list of arrivals at the National Hotel is crowded out for want of room; also are our usual commercial reports.

Mr. Pauls has just published the "Democrat's Almanac." Every Democrat should have a copy.

The Lantz Lake, a steam-tug, intended for the Gulf of Mexico, was exploded near Galveston a few years ago, killing Montgomery, the captain, and slightly wounding five crewmen.

Thanks to L. H. Burke, Mail Agent on the Lexington, for a copy of yesterday's Clinton Equator, delivered several hours in advance of the mail.

The five passenger packet Fashion has placed its under obligation for late St. Louis papers, and a copy of her manifest and memorandum. She returns to St. Louis to-day.

AROMATIC.—Want of space prevents any remarks this morning upon the extraordinary proceedings of the Common Council at its session on Thursday night. We shall pay our respects to that august body in a few days.

The German Benevolent Society was on parade yesterday morning, with a band of fine music. We did not understand what was the particular occasion. The Know-Nothing allowed them to pass without disturbance.

The inquiry was frequently made on the street last evening, as to which was the more reliable just now, the stock of the "Little Black and Oriental Salt Company," or that of the Fillmore and Dunston Company. The State Company rather preponderated.

Turtle Soup for the Million.

We would barely hint to our readers that the monster green sea turtle will be served up in soup at the National Hotel this morning, at the hour ranging between 10 and 12 o'clock. The reputation of this house is proverbial for its good fare, and its luncheon are not behind its reputation.

Religious services in the Third Street (M. E.) Church to-morrow, Sabbath, Rev. G. W. Swiley will preach at 11 o'clock, A. M. Subject: St. John's Description of Heaven, as indicated by the expression "There shall be no night there." Preaching also at 5 P. M., at which hour the evening services will be held during the summer months.

TOBACCO AND CIGAR STORE.—We take pleasure in directing the attention of the public to the cigar establishment of Mr. George Sauer, No. 91, Fifth street, between Market and Jefferson streets. He has recently established himself in business at the above named locality, and has a choice lot of cigars and tobacco, to suit the wants of amateurs and the public generally. We have tested their quality, and take great pleasure in recommending his establishment to all lovers of the weed.

THE BUCHANAN POLKA.—Quick Work.—Yesterday Mr. D. P. Faulds and his gang, accompanied a few unparoled ex-convicts, as indicated by the expression "There shall be no night there." Preaching also at 5 P. M., at which hour the evening services will be held during the summer months.

We are requested by the ladies engaged in getting up the musical festival for next week, to say that persons having shrubbery, plants, or flowers in tubs or pots, will confer a great favor by loaning them for this occasion. As this is purely a benevolent enterprise, we trust that it is only necessary for their wishes to be known to be fully and promptly met. Special care will be taken that the plants so loaned shall not be injured.

Any person disposed to favor these benevolent ladies, can leave word at the store of Mr. Ringgold, on Fourth street, near Main, and the plants will be called for and returned with care.

NEW MUSIC.—We have received five pieces of new music, we have at yet had time to read only one—the others we glanced over.

Mr. C. J. Kent, No. 67 Third street, reads as the "National Democratic Convention Grand March," by G. B. Saffery. It is well arranged, and we judge will be popular as a march. A six months scholar can master it. Second: "The National Democratic Convention Polka," by Carl Lentner. This has some fine ideas, and will prove an excellent study for an ambitious young pupil. Both these pieces are published by W. C. Peters & Sons, Cincinnati, and both will be popular, as well as any influence on account of the name.

Mr. D. P. Faulds, Main street, publisher, reads us three pieces, which he would do well to buy. The "Gaily Sublimity," by B. Tenpe, is very lively and pleasing. The "Rainbow Polka," arranged by G. W. T. is more difficult and rather tedious. The "Blue Waltz," by Miss Kate Hunter, we have read with pleasure. The same is the only objection—it is not likely to excite in the minds of scholars any desire to possess it, still it is as excellent as if possessed of a more attractive name. The introduction is written with a richness and elegance of harmony, combined with a certain majesty of movement that none but a master could have produced. The waltz moves off with life and spirit, and cannot fail to please. If this is Miss Kate's first attempt, it is a most wonderful one—and prove her a musician. We advise all in search of new music to buy these pieces, and they will be much pleased.

Chamber of Commerce.

The regular monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce was held at the Merchants' Exchange on Thursday, June 5th, James Turner presiding.

On motion of Mr. B. Masselman, his motion, which had been made the order of the evening, was deferred for future action.

Mr. A. C. Badger, in the absence of Mr. Needham, reported the action of the Committee appointed at the last meeting upon the subject of Water-Works. His report was considered favorably to a speedy action on the part of the General Council.

Mr. Gansley then made a few very pertinent and pointed remarks on the state of the Exchange and the duties of the merchants toward it.

On motion, the Chamber adjourned till called together by the chairman of the committee, to hear their final report.
